"A few months ago, food which I ate for breakfast would not remain on my stomach for half an hour. I used one bottle of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and can now eat my breakfast and other meals with a relish and my food is thoroughly digested. Nothing equals Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for stomach troubles. H. S. Pitts, Arlington, Tex. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

We have received the following note from one of our former lady citizens, now residing in St. Louis, Mo. We thank her and her genial husband (our life-long friend) for their kind consideration:

St. Louis, Tuesday, May 28, '01.
My dear Mr. Lewis:

Our address, after this, will be 2645 Olive street. I wish you could see Mr. * * * * anxiety about the Roundabout. The first question he asks, when he gets home from his office on Saturday evening, is "Has the Roundabout come?" When he gets it I give up all hope of seeing it until the next day. Very truly,
Mrs. * * * *

Miss Ella Allison and Mr. Allen Stigers, Miss Florida Hamilton and Mr. John Allison, Miss Mary Young and Mr. Willie Stigers composed a merry party that graced Elkhorn with their smiling faces Sunday.

We wish to correct the mistake in the date of Mrs. Ruth Moore's death, which appeared in our last issue. We said, or intended to say, the 18th, instead of the 1st, as before stated, for of course the first day of May did not come on Saturday.

We are glad to report Mr. J. H. Sudduth much improved at this writing.

Mr. Harry Hulette paid his respects to Miss Mittie Mitchell

Sunday evening. Harry is fast becoming known in his new buggy.

Mrs. Hazel Chism spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Sallie Pulliam.

As Rev. R. L. McCready was physically unable to fill his appointment at Mt. Zion Sunday evening, Mr. Wentworth was called to fill the vacancy, which he did in a very eloquent manner.

Died—At her home on Benson, Friday, May 24th, Mrs. Margaret Moore, wife of Judge Dan Moore. She leaves a husband and ten children, six boys and four girls, and a host of relatives and friends. The funeral took place at Benson Church, Saturday evening, conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. H. Burdin, after which the remains were borne to their last resting place in the churchyard by her six sons, it being her request that they officiate as pall-bearers. Mrs. Moore was a highly esteemed lady, giving much of her time to the service of the Master. To the bereaved ones we tender our heartfelt sympathy, urging them to look forward to that great day when those that she loved shall live forever in that happy land. Then sleep, sweet mother, and fondest wife
Since Jesus has freed you from all earthly strife.
At the portals of glory, relieved from all pain,
Loved ones you shall meet her again.
